When it comes to preparation for bank recruitment examination, aspirants want to leave no stone unturned. Aspirants do their best to get a job in banking sector. To get hands on any sort of preparation, they go for offline and online resources.

Nowadays there are many online resources available for the bank exam preparation but has anybody ever thought of the use of television news channel for bank exam preparation.

SBI PO examination 2018 is scheduled to be held in the month of April. To help you prepare better we are enlisting some news channels for SBI PO exam preparation.

DD News

It is the only terrestrial cum satellite News Channel of the country. The channel was launched in November 2003 by converting DD-metro into 24x7 news channel. The channel telecast daily current affairs programme along with national, international, economy and business and sports news which is really help full for SBI PO aspirants. Apart from that, channel produced special shows on youth issues, art and culture, flagships schemes of a government of India, employment opportunities, international events, market developments, insights on important economic issues etc.

To watch these shows will immensely help you in SBI PO group discussion (GD) and personal interview (PI) round. The candidates don't need any coaching classes for group discussion (GD) and personal interview (PI) round if they regularly watch these shows on DD news.

NDTV Profit

If you are banking aspirants, it is expected from you to know bits and pieces of the Indian economy, banking and finance. NDTV is one of the most watched and dependable news channels in India. NDTV Profit covers all important news of Indian economy.

The channel has a different section like money, corporate, economy, Market, Industries, Budget, start-ups, Global business etc. In SBI PO examination questions on these topics are frequently asked in General Awareness section. So watching NDTV profit will never harm you are sincere SBI PO exam aspirants 2018.
